

NYC LANDMARKS50 ALLIANCE

Barbaralee Diamonstein-Spielvogel, Founder/Chair in collaboration with the EDNY United States Bankruptcy Court, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit and the U.S. General Services Administration cordially invite you to

A Panel Discussion & Reception to Follow

Preserving our Architectural History: The Business Case for Landmarks Preservation

Wednesday, 21 October 2015

5:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Conrad B. Duberstein U.S. Bankruptcy Courthouse
271 Cadman Plaza East, Brooklyn

Program

5:00-5:30 P.M.

Courthouse Open for Viewing Exhibition
Landmarks of New York

5:30 to 7:00 p.m.

Welcome and Panel Discussion

Vishaan Chakrabarti, Associate Professor, Columbia University and Partner, ShoP Architects

Gregory Dietrich, Preservation Consultant

Author of A Proven Success: How the NYC Landmarks Law and Process Benefit the City

Jeffrey A. Kroessler, Associate Professor, Lloyd Sealy Library at John Jay College
Author and Co-Founder of the Queensborough Preservation League

Joseph B. Rose, President, Rose Urban Strategies and former Chair, City Planning Commission

Beth Savage, Historic Buildings and Preservation Manager
General Services Administration

William M. Singer, Chief Plan Examiner, Borough of Brooklyn,
NYC Department of Buildings; former Partner, Gruzen Samton Architects

Moderator

Frank E. Sanchis, III

Director of United States Programs, World Monuments Fund

7:00-8:00 pm Reception (Main Lobby)

Rsvp to: rsvp@nyeb.uscourts.gov

This invitation is non-transferable and space is limited.